

Proposing in Campus Martius Park

On behalf of the Downtown Detroit Partnership and Campus Martius Park, congratulations on your soon-to-be engagement! This is a significant milestone in your life, and we're honored to be a part of your story as a couple.

To help navigate, here are answers to commonly asked questions:

- At Campus Martius Park, we are truly Detroit's Gathering Place and there are likely to be crowds gathered nearby at the moment of your proposal
- You're welcome to propose at any point during park hours
- Secure the ring! The park is not responsible for lost items
- During the holidays, proposals are welcome in front of Detroit's Christmas Tree, on the Rink, or other publicly accessible areas
- Campus Martius is a programmed, public park and staff are unable to accommodate private or specific proposal production elements, accommodations, or requests involving music, lighting, video, or other elements
- Playing amplified sound or hosting an event or flashmob is prohibited. Décor, furniture, food and beverage (including outside alcohol), props, floral, candles, etc. is also prohibited. Contracting with third-party event or prop service companies is also prohibited.
- Once you're engaged, let us know on Facebook or Instagram using the hashtag #DowntownDet for a chance to be featured on our accounts!

We're happy to be a party of your Detroit story and looking forward to helping you create memories with us.
